The 2nd April, 1970

No. 800-2E-EDII (U.II)-70/9085.—The Governor of Haryana is pleased to make the following amendment in the Punjab Education Code with immediate effect:—

The following shall replace Note (2) under Article 69 of the said Code:—

No Grant-in-aid shall be allowed under this Article in respect of a teacher who has attained the age of 58 years except in a case of a teacher of exceptional merit which necessitates his retention in service beyond that age:

Provided that such retention shall be allowed only up to 60 years of age on year to year basis subject to the fulfilment of the following conditions:—

(i) One Year's extension shall be given in the first instance to a Male Headmaster/Principal posted in Girls' High/Higher Secondary School and Managing Committee shall employ Lady Headmaster/Principal after the expiry of one year. Extension for the second year shall only be allowed if the request is supported with a Certificate from the Local Employment Exchange stating therein that no Lady candidate was available with them for the post of Lady Headmaster/Principal.

(ii) The Managing Committee passes a specific resolution to retain the teacher concerned in service beyond 58 years of age.

(iii) The teacher concerned is physically and mentally fit and produces a certificate of fitness to this effect from the Chief Medical Officer of the District.

(iv) The performance and conduct of the teacher is good.

(v) The Managing Committee shall submit a regular application to be renewed every year for the retention of the teacher concerned and payment of Grant-in-aid to—

(a) the District Education Officer concerned in respect of a Teacher other than a Graduate Teacher.

(b) the Director of public Instruction, Haryana, in respect of a Graduate Teacher, Post-Graduate Teacher, Headmaster/Headmistress and Principal.
